

Prof. Thierry Lefevre

Prof. Thierry Lefevre is at present the Director of the Center for Energy Environment Resources Development (CEERD) which is part of the Foundation for International Human Resource Development (FIHRD), a non-governmental and non-profit organisation based in Thailand and focused on energy-environment sustainable and human resource development in the Asian Region.

Prof. Thierry Lefevre has 36 years of international experience on teaching and research activities in the field of Energy-Environment Information systems, Energy-Environment Economics, Modeling, Planning & Policy and Long Term Forecasting. He has been responsible for the management of more than 100 major projects in his field of expertise with national, international and multilateral agencies such as the European Commission, World Bank, Asian Development Bank, United Nations Agencies, APEC, ASEAN, NEDO, IAEA, IEA, WEC and the French Government etc...

He is currently member of the "APEREC Advisory Board" (Tokyo, Japan) and of the "IAEA DECADE's Programme Steering Committee" (Vienna, Austria). He is also a member of Professional Societies such as the "Siam Society of Thailand", the "Foreign Correspondent Club of Thailand", the "Venezuelan Association for the Advancement of Science" (Caracas, Venezuela), and the "International Network on Small Hydro Power" (Hangzhou, China).

Prof. Thierry Lefèvre received his Ph.D., Master and Engineering degrees from France.