

Mr. Magnus A. Staudte

Mr. Magnus A. Staudte MSc, MBA founded ENVIMA in Germany in 1995 and is founder and owner of ENVIMA in Thailand and Indonesia. Since 2000, Mr. Staudte is working in Thailand in the fields of Air Pollution Management, Renewable Energy and CDM. Since 2003 he is working as Managing Director at ENVIMA (Thailand) Co., Ltd., Mr. Staudte has a strong background in Regional and Industrial Environmental Management, Eco-Efficiency in Industries and Renewable Energy Technology in combination with huge expertise in the Clean Development Mechanism.

Since more than 15 years Mr. Staudte has worked world wide in more than fifteen developing countries in South America, Near East and South East Asia on the mentioned fields of work besides numerous projects in the fields of integrated waste management, infrastructure planning and industrial waste and industrial environmental projects.

Since the year 2003, Mr. Staudte worked in more than 35 CDM projects world wide through direct contracts, subcontracts, and in consortia, whereas not only CDM application procedures had been implemented but as well capacity building, advisory services, methodology development, methodology revisions and numerous studies on CDM potentials, development of guidelines, evaluations on CDM economics for SMEs and studies on legal and regulatory national background in different countries.